FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FOR COMMERCIAL TENANTS

2025 Edition. For general guidance only; the tenancy agreement prevails.

Q1. How is rent paid?

Rent is payable monthly in advance by the 1st of each month. We encourage payment by GIRO.

Q2. What happens if I pay late?

Late-payment interest of 8% per annum is charged on overdue amounts. You will receive reminders, and continued non-payment may lead to legal action and termination.

Q3. Can I change my trade?

You may apply for a change of trade. Approval depends on the trade mix in the area, your payment and compliance record, and licensing requirements. A processing fee of S$300 applies.

Q4. Can I sublet part of my shop?

No. Subletting or sharing any part of the premises without HEB's written approval is not allowed.

Q5. When should I apply to renew my tenancy?

Please apply at least 6 months before your tenancy expires. We will send you an invitation about 8 months before expiry if you are eligible.

Q6. How is my renewal rent determined?

Renewal rent is based on the prevailing market rent assessed by an independent valuer.

Q7. How much is the security deposit?

The security deposit is equivalent to two (2) months' rent and is refundable at the end of the tenancy, less any amounts owed.

Q8. Do I need approval for renovation?

Yes, most works need approval. Please refer to the Guidelines on A&A Works for Commercial Tenants.

Q9. How far can I display goods outside my shop?

Up to 0.6 m beyond your shopfront, keeping a 1.2 m clear walkway.

Q10. Who do I contact about building defects?

Report defects through the CityFix App or our hotline. We will arrange for repairs.

Q11. Can I transfer my tenancy to someone else?

You may apply for assignment after the first 12 months of your tenancy.

Q12. What are the permitted operating hours?

Noisy activities are not allowed between 10.30 pm and 7.00 am. Eating houses may operate 24 hours with approval.

Q13. How do I get my deposit back?

Your deposit is refunded within 60 days after you return the premises in good condition.

Q14. What insurance do I need?

Public liability insurance with a minimum cover of S$1,000,000.
